BOOK SIGNING DOCKSIDE AT HISTORIC LST 325

Military historian William L. McGee signs books at historic LST 325 Mobile, Alabama, Friday, September 21, 2001

SANTA BARBARA, CA, September 10, 2001—Noted World War II historian William L. McGee will discuss and sign the first two volumes from his series Amphibious Operations in the South Pacific in WWII, dockside at the historic LST 325 in Mobile, Alabama, on Friday, September 21, 2001, from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon.

McGee will be in Mobile for the 16th Reunion of the U.S. LST (Landing Ship, Tank) Association from Wednesday, September 19 to Sunday, September 23. He will also be signing books at the Adams Mark Hotel, 64 South Water Street in Mobile, the reunion's headquarters.

The author, a WWII veteran and retired broadcaster, has garnered glowing reviews for his meticulously researched and highly readable histories.

Volume I, The Amphibians Are Coming! Emergence of the 'Gator Navy and its Revolutionary Landing Craft, is a biographical history of the revolutionary WWII landing craft and their crews.

Volume II, The Solomons Campaigns, 1942-1943: From Guadalcanal to Bougainville, Pacific War Turning Point, chronicles the first U.S. offensive after Pearl Harbor.

The author may be contacted during the reunion dates at the Adams Mark Hotel, (251) 438-4000.
